

The latest issue of Legal & General's The Link Magazine

Welcome to 2023's first edition of The Link. We're well into another busy year, and to kick off, we've brought a range of thought-provoking and expert views for you in this issue.

Download Issue 8

What's in the latest issue?

- How purpose could transform our future – Nigel Wilson, Group Chief Executive, takes a close look at our purpose of Inclusive Capitalism, and how having a purpose can inspire and provoke opportunity.
- A dedicated team to help develop your business – We discuss the recent launch of our new Protection Sales Team and how it's built to help you with your business development strategy.
- Critical illness updates, for plans that adapt when life changes – Find out more about the important updates to our Critical Illness Cover that'll provide greater financial support to your clients and their family.