

We pride ourselves on assessing applications through sensible underwriting and a flexible approach with a dedicated underwriter for each application from start to finish. We recognise each mortgage application is different and should be looked at, on individual merit and affordability.

Sometimes income can be complex particularly if clients are self-employed or have income from numerous sources, so we take the time to work with advisers to make sensible judgements on such cases. We mainly operate in the niche areas of the market including self-employed, interest only, lending in and into retirement, self-build, mixed-use (semi-commercial), and family assist (JBSP and property assist at 100%).
