NEW INSURER JOINS PAYMENTSHILED PANEL

Paymentshield are pleased to announce that Integra have joined their Home Insurance panel.

With over 40 years in UK Home Insurance industry, Integra are an MGA based in the UK with a focus on homeowner insurance products. Their products are constantly reviewed and refined using the latest in-depth data enrichment technologies allowing them to provide competitive quotations based on granular data.

Delivering high-quality insurance and providing their customers is at the heart of what they do. They offer a first-class claims service managed by their UK based global claims partner who provide customer focussed end to end claims handling, utilising a range of market leading field and digital technology-based services.

Joe Bishop, Insurer Relations Director at Paymentshield, said: “At Paymentshield we work closely with insurers to deliver our advisers with the best quality panel that offers a wide scope of coverage, competition on price and the peace of mind that, should their clients ever need to make a claim, they will receive an unrivalled experience.

“The addition of Integra to our Home Insurance panel, will support all of these things and provide advisers with a great opportunity to talk about general insurance with their general insurance clients.”

Integra's Deputy Chief Underwriting Officer, Tony Dixon, said ‘We're delighted to be forming a new partnership with Paymentshield. Their unique distribution channel through mortgage and financial advisers opens up a new segment of the home insurance market to Integra.

We're now able to offer Paymentshield customers competitive household rates driven from our sophisticated pricing models and enhanced quotability derived from our IHP infrastructure. This is an exciting opportunity for both parties, and we look forward to building a successful relationship.’
