

JUST.

NEW 2023 Social Care report: Independent financial adviser's role is even more important

Insights in our latest Social Care Report show that those who engaged advisers while arranging care for a loved one were nearly four times as likely to create their own care plans.

Qualified advisers can make a difference especially in helping clients get the best possible outcomes expected by the FCA in its Consumer Duty regulation.

Read our full report to learn more.