What this means for your clients:

This updated list will start from 11 December 2023, but we wanted to let you know ahead of this so you're in a better position to answer any questions you may receive from your clients. This update won't impact your clients who are mid-claim, and they will be able to complete their medical treatment at the current facility.

Your clients will also be able to see our updated Extended hospital list on the website, where they can also find an updated FAQ document.

If you have any questions about this email, or anything else, your dedicated Business Development Manager is available to help in anyway they can. Any urgent queries can be sent to brokersupport@nationalfriendly.co.uk
