

Get your year off to a good start with The Exeter's value-added sessions where you can hear from Square Health experts on Remote GP services, how Health MOTs work and insights into how mental health sessions are run.

If you can't attend on the dates below, register and watch on-demand when it suits you. These sessions are not to be missed.

Meet Paul: A Square Health counsellor and psychotherapist

28th February 11.00am – 11.40am

Join The Exeter for their value-added session where they are joined by Paul Biddulph, a Square Health counsellor and psychotherapist specialising in depression, anxiety, relationships and bereavement. In this insightful discussion, Paul will share what happens during a mental health session, including how your clients are assessed to ensure therapies are appropriate for them.

Register now

The value of value-added services

March 6th 11.00am – 11.40am

Register for their value-added session where Jamie Page, Head of Protection Distribution at The Exeter and Andrea Ryan, Senior Account Manager at Square Health, discuss consumer perceptions of value-added-services as well as the benefits for your clients. They'll be looking at how these services are run to ensure clinical governance and quality of care and how value-added services can support you with consumer duty guidance.

Register now