

Market Harborough BUILDING SOCIETY

Finding the ideal mortgage solution for a quirky property and complex income

As one of the UK's fastest-growing building societies, we have an impressive track record when it comes to finding solutions for scenarios with more than one quirk or complexity.

We've recently helped four applicants from different generations remortgage their former stately home. An unusual property, high net worth clients, lending into retirement and multiple sources of income, this case had many complex factors. Yet, our team managed to pull out all the stops and find the ideal solution.
