Secure Your Clients' Homes with Mortgage Shield.

In the current climate, it's easy to find yourself feeling adrift; with the cost of living only increasing and redundancies on the rise, the world feels like a scary place. Everyone worries about these things – about what they might do if they were left without an income because they were made redundant, or if they had to take time away from work because of accident or illness. These concerns get compounded especially when it's your mortgage on your family home, and you have other family members depending on you.

That's what Mortgage Shield is for – the people who have a home to secure!

Best Insurance's Mortgage Shield does exactly what it says on the tin; to Shield your clients from the financial hardships that crop up when you least expect it by providing your customers with income replacement when they need it most. Whether that's an accident that leaves them too injured to return to their usual occupation, or an illness that takes them out of work, or even a redundancy – all these possibilities are covered by the protection Mortgage Shield offers.

What makes Mortgage Shield stand out from other protection insurance policies, is that we here at Best Insurance have designed it specifically with mortgage holders in mind. Capable of being taken out the moment that a mortgage is agreed upon, it serves to protect your clients' income, so they can keep making mortgage payments even when it feels like things are at their worst. Even if they've had a mortgage in place for years, no one ever knows what's around the corner, so Mortgage Shield is here to guard your customers against the loss of their home, on top of the loss of their income.

With market-leading pricing and up to £2,000 of cover for every month you're out of work, your clients can be sure that they're getting the very Best deal with Mortgage Shield. Protect your customers' income, their mortgage, and – most importantly! – their home today.
