

Post-sale

Tools to help you keep in touch

You've secured your client's mortgage, but what can you do to keep in touch?

Unlike a protection policy, home insurance is an annually renewable policy, so it provides the perfect opportunity to stay in contact with your clients and keep your business front of mind. And, we've got some great guides for you to share with your clients on a seasonal basis, to help you add value and stay in touch.

Prevention is better than cure

Share these guides with your clients to help them maintain their homes and potentially prevent claims.
