

Celebrating Inclusion Championing Wellbeing

Supporting our customers and colleagues this Pride Month

At WPA, Pride Month is a time to honour and uplift the LGBTQ+ community – and we're proud to share our values of inclusion, respect, and wellbeing for all.

As an inclusive health insurer and employer, you can have confidence that WPA's commitment to diversity is reflected in how we care for our customers and our people.

This month, we're spotlighting the support we offer through our Health & Wellbeing Hub, where we've created a range of resources designed to educate, support and empower individuals – whether they're WPA customers, intermediaries, or staff.

These resources are easy to access and ideal for sharing with clients and colleagues:

- Coming Out at Work: Guidance for individuals navigating their identity in the workplace, and how employers and colleagues can be supportive allies.
- LGBTQ+ Terminology and Definitions: A clear and respectful guide to understanding the language of inclusion – because using the right words matters.
- Health & Wellbeing Hub: A wide range of articles and advice to help all our members, no matter their background, feel seen and supported.
