

We're there for your clients, at every step

We paid nearly £137 million to almost 8,000 individuals and families who were ill, injured or lost a loved one in 2024.

In our latest claims report, you can find proof points and examples to show how protection makes the difference.

Download our claims report.

Bringing life to protection

Real stories can illustrate the difference that protection can make following a life-changing event. They play an important role in supporting conversations with your clients by showing that protection pays.

Jennie Gow, a Formula 1 broadcaster and pitlane reporter shared her story on suffering from an unexpected and life-changing stroke in December 2022. Her story shows how Income Protection supported her, and her family, at a difficult time.

Our dedicated Protection Stories hub provides you with relevant examples to use in upcoming conversations with your clients.

Visit the Protection Stories hub.