

Product Update

Did you know the average home insurance quote is now 7.9% cheaper than last year?

At a time when the cost of living keeps climbing, home insurance is combating inflation, with prices becoming more competitive year on year. In fact, quotes are down 7.9% compared to last year and 3.9% lower just in the last quarter.

And that's not the only good news...

Game-Changing Cover from Arkel Adapt and Clearsure

We're excited to announce that Arkel Adapt and Clearsure have taken things to the next level:

- Exclusive Ceta discount – making them exceptionally competitive on price.
- Increased cover levels:
- Buildings maximum sum insured increased to £1m
- Contents maximum sum insured increased to £100k

We Listen – And We've Acted

You asked for a clearer comparison page to share with customers and meet compliance needs.

From 19th August, when you select Print from the results page, you'll receive a new, easy-to-read document that looks like this:
