

Introducing client-first flexibility

Improved Drawdown products and an enhanced Equity Release Portal

We have recently made some improvements to our Lifetime Mortgage Drawdown Lifestyle and Drawdown+ products. Introduced on Monday 15 December, these changes mean greater choice and flexibility for clients. At the same time, we announced some enhancements to our Equity Release Portal.

What do these changes mean for advisers and their clients?

Lifetime Mortgage Drawdown Lifestyle and Drawdown+ products

- Advisers are now able to customise a specific drawdown reserve for their clients, up to the maximum LTV available.
- This increased choice builds on the existing pre-set options available in our Equity Release Portal.

The LV= Equity Release Portal

- The LV= Portal now has a more efficient adviser journey with improved case management and less re-keying.
- All quotes have a new expiry date of ten business days, even if interest rates change in this period – although we recommend applications are submitted as early as possible.

Important information

These enhancements to our Lifetime Mortgage Drawdown products and Portal went live on Monday 15 December, but all live cases started before this date must be submitted no later than Friday 9 January 2026 to be processed.
